

"Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening." 1 Samuel 3v9 & 10 NASB

1) How can you know the will of God for your life according to 1 Samuel 3v9 & 10 ?

2) Where do we have God's clear Word speaking to us ?

3) Why is it important to stop talking to be able to hear God ?

4) What attitude did Samuel have when he said, "your servant is listening" ?

5) When Paul speaks of the "whole counsel of God", what part of Scripture did he leave out ?

5) If reading all the Bible in one year only takes a few minutes a day, what is your excuse for not doing it ?

6) Why not start a journal today of the verses that answers your questions about the will of God for your life for today ?
