Study questions for 2nd Corinthians 2v1-11

Remember to find the answers in the verses under consideration !

v 1 The first word "but" marks a new natural division in this book. The writer now addresses the matter of restoration after sinning believers have repented. What attitude should change after someone repents ?

v 2 Why is it important NOT to always cause others to be sad ?

v 3 How does God prefer that we influence other Christians' emotion ?

v 4 When AND why was Paul afflicted, anguished and in tears ?

v 5 Who is made sorrowful when someone in the church sins ?

v 6 What was the punishment ? (cf 1Cor5v11) vs 7-8 How should we treat a repentant Christian ? Why is this important to so immediately ?

vs 9-11 Who will take advantage of the situation to cause division if we don't truly forgive ?
